Syngenta Flowers is pleased to announce

The Glenn Goldsmith Breeding Excellence Scholarship
$5,000 awarded to a student working toward a degree in plant breeding

~ AND ~

The Goldsmith Seeds Floriculture Business Advancement Scholarship
$5,000 awarded to a student working toward a degree in ornamental horticulture business

Eligibility Requirements
• Minimum GPA 3.0
• Enrollment in an accredited four-year university during the 2016-2017 academic year
• Open to students pursuing an undergraduate or MS/Ph.D. degree

Judging Panel
All applications will be judged by a panel consisting of Syngenta leaders as well as industry representatives and professors.

Scholarship Awards
• Scholarship recipients will be chosen and notified by the end of March
• Scholarship recipients will be announced at the Californial Spring Trials.

Application Requirements
• Cover letter detailing:
  – The scholarship for which the applicant wishes to be considered
  – The name of the university the applicant attends – Degree the applicant is working toward
  – Applicant’s target graduation date
• Letter of recommendation on university letterhead from the applicant’s academic advisor or professor
• Essay of 1,000 – 1,500 words:
  – Topic: ‘Revolutionizing the Plant Experience.’ Please describe what that means to you in relation to your career path.
• High-resolution photo of yourself.
• Please submit application materials via e-mail to: goldsmithscholarship@gmail.com
• Application deadline: February 15, 2016

Photos are either the property of Syngenta or used under agreement.
©2016 Syngenta. The Syngenta logo are trademarks of a Syngenta Group Company.