Reflections
Esther Minic-Rosenthal and Joy Rosenthal

Medium: Window frame, glass, mirrors, resin and wood paint
The window is made up of many different sized circular mirrors metaphorical as watery bubbles and overall metaphorical of a waterfall. You can see an altered view of the garden in the reflection of the simulated waters. And, with you, present in that space.